Jamia Hamdard's Majeedia Unani Hospital Successfully Hosts Free Health Camp on Lifestyle Disorders.

New Delhi, September 2, 2024: The Department of Moalajat (Medicine) at the School of Unani Medical Education & Research (SUMER), Jamia Hamdard, in collaboration with Majeedia Unani Hospital, successfully organized a Free Health Camp focusing on Lifestyle Disorders at Abul Fazal Enclave-1, Jamia Nagar, New Delhi. The event, held on August 31, 2024, was inaugurated by Prof. Asim Ali Khan, Dean of SUMER. Over 300 patients benefited from this outreach program, which aimed to promote public health and provide immediate solutions to health concerns.

The camp was conducted under the expert supervision of the renowned pulse diagnostician, Hakim Dr. Md. Anzar Alam (MD, Ph.D.), who also served as the Organizing Secretary. Hakim Dr. Alam's exceptional skill in pulse diagnosis, which allows him to identify a patient's ailments solely through pulse examination without asking detailed information, was widely appreciated. His diagnostic accuracy astonished many attendees, with several patients confirming his insights about their heart and liver conditions through subsequent reports. Such expertise in pulse diagnosis helps the public avoid unnecessary expenses on tests and check-ups.

Key features of the Free Health Camp included:

- Free medical examinations and pulse diagnostics
- Comprehensive disease assessment
- Provision of free medications
- Special treatment for joint issues, heart diseases, liver conditions, and diabetes

The event concluded with the organizers expressing their hope to raise awareness about the benefits of Unani treatment in society.

Anzar Alam, Assistant Professor in the Department of Moalajat (Medicine) and Organizing Secretary of the camp, extended his heartfelt thanks to his colleagues, including Hakim Wasi Akhtar, Dr. Shoaib Ahmed, Dr. Abdul Nasir, Dr. Ihtisham-ul-Haq, Dr. Nushrat, Dr. Md.
