Report on Swachhata Pakhwada

As per the notice received from MHRD (No.1104/02/2016-CDN(Pt.1)), the students of JLN-International hostel for Boys & Ibn-e-Batuta, Jamia Hamdard have participated in 'SWACHHTA PAKHWADA' programme, a Government initiative for the spreading the message of cleanliness not only among the students but also in the surrounding areas.

All the wards of the above said hostels were well intimated about the programmes.

- As part of this programme Indian/NRI/International students have participated in the cleaning of their rooms and hostel surroundings (photographs attached).
- As part of this programme 'Cleanest Hostel room' contest was held on 13-09-2017 and best three rooms were selected from the each hostel based on the following guidelines.

Parameters are placed for cleanest Hostel room' contest

- Cleanliness of the room
- Proper arrangement of cupboards
- Washing of cloths inside the hostel is barred. There shouldn't be cloths hanged inside the corridor/rooms of the hostel.
- Proper arrangement of book shelves: Books, headphones, laptops, pens and other stuffs should be kept in an organized manner
- Proper use of Dustbins: Dustbins are outside hostel rooms, thus these are meant to be used and not just as a showpiece. You should learn to throw unwanted things inside the dustbin instead of dumping on the grounds and making your space unclean and dirty.
- Electronic waste should be properly disposed off by using the dust bin placed specially for e-waste.
- Use Tissue papers/Disposable plates and cups In order to maintain cleanliness and properly disposed off. Similarly, instead of dumping plastic plates and cups in the mess, use disposable ones to save the environment and keeping it clean. Taking food in plates inside the hostel rooms is strictly barred.
- Keeping electronic items like TV, Iron box, Heaters etc. are strictly barred.
- Students should obey the hostel bye-laws

A team comprising of Prof. Kalim Javed (Provost-Boys), Mr. Sohrab A. Khan (Warden- Ibn e Batuta) and Dr. Syed Shafi (Warden-JLN International Hostel for Boys) visited all rooms of both the hostels and selected three clean rooms from each hostel based on the above parameters.
